

Glenn County Superior Court Web Site Press Release

The Superior Court of California, County of Glenn is pleased to announce the creation of the Court's website. The Court received a grant from the Administrative Office of the Courts, which funded the entire development of the site.

In addition to specific information regarding the Glenn County Superior Court, the web site was designed as a tool for the public to have a greater understanding of and access to the California Court system, including resources and related links for teachers. Other features of the web site are a "frequently asked questions" section, fees and forms, "who's who" in the courts and what their roles are, self-help sources for self represented litigants, and a glossary of court and legal related terms.

The web site address is www.glenncourt.ca.gov
